3 Julbord: the Christmas table

IN SHORT

Julbord means Christmas table: a buffet of cold and hot Christmas dishes. Restaurants usually serve it from late November until about 23 December. At home, families eat it on 24 December.

HOW TO BOOK

Book ahead, especially for Fridays and weekends. Plan for two to three hours. Ask what is included and check the cancellation terms.

IN WHAT ORDER

2. Herring and other fish, with potatoes and bread.
3. Cold meats, such as Christmas ham (julskinka).
4. Small hot dishes: meatballs (köttbullar), small sausages (prinskorv) and Jansson's temptation (Janssons frestelse).

5 Lucia and Kalle Anka

IN SHORT

Two traditions almost every Swede knows: the Lucia procession in December and the Disney cartoon hour on Christmas Eve.

LUCIA, 13 DECEMBER

A choir in white walks in with candles, led by Lucia with a crown of candles, and sings Lucia and Christmas songs. In Stockholm, Lucia concerts take place in many churches from early December. Many need a ticket, so book early on the church's website.

KALLE ANKA, 24 DECEMBER AT 15:00

Many families watch Kalle Anka och hans vänner önskar God Jul, Donald Duck and his friends, on SVT1. It has been shown every Christmas Eve since 1960. It is live on SVT Play only, and only in Sweden.
